

Local News

: Personals :

C. A. C. Waller of Greenwood, spent Friday in town.

John T. Cheatham and Paul Wardlaw spent Saturday in Anderson.

Miss Louise Brown spent Tuesday in Greenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Williamson spent Sunday in Pansy, Ga.

Mr. J. C. Fair was an interested visitor in Abbeville over Sunday.

D. H. Hill went to McCormick Monday on business, making the trip in his machine.

Misses Grace Donald and Claudia Bell of Due West, were shopping in town Friday.

Miss Lena Ferguson left Friday for Ridgeway, where she will teach this coming session.

Mr. Oscar Cobb came up from Greenwood Sunday, and spent the day with his old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Speed and H. Owen Speed spent Sunday in Hartwell, Ga., with relatives.

Mrs. S. G. Thomson and Mrs. Joe Little spent yesterday in Due West with relatives.

Miss Margaret Reese, Florence, arrived here Saturday to visit her brother, M. B. Reese.

Mrs. David Gilliam, Haskells, spent Saturday and Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. F. B. McLane.

Miss Ivy Calhoun is in the city for a short visit to Miss Sarah Haskell.

Miss Helen Guild is spending a day or two this week with Mrs. F. M. Welsh.

Mrs. Luther Link and her fine young baby spent last week in the city with Mrs. G. A. Harrison.

Mrs. Ozey Ellenburg and Miss Williams of Penney's Creek, were visitors in Abbeville Saturday.

James Coleman and William Hill visited Greenville and Westminster last week.

Mr. Sidney Cannon is in the city from New York on a visit to his mother.

Misses Mildren and Mary Grace Wilson were in the city Monday getting ready to go to Winthrop.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Sharp were in town from Brownlee's this week, buying fall supplies in our stores.

Miss Belle Atkins has returned to her home in Greenwood, after a two weeks visit to her nephew, Mr. E. H. Richey and family.

Earle Cheatham is home after a week's visit to his sisters, Mrs. Ames Haltiwanger and Miss Norma Cheatham in Columbia.

Miss Bessie Murray is here from Greenville spending a two weeks vacation with Mrs. W. T. McDonald on Magazine street.

C. F. McNeill spent Saturday and Sunday in Atlanta with Miss Stella McNeill, who was operated upon Saturday at hospital in that city.

Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Edwards and children, Spartanburg, spent the week-end with Dr. Edwards' mother, Mrs. J. G. Edwards.

Reese Hall took a vacation all of last week and went down to Augusta to take a look at the ways of this wicked city.

Mrs. Luke Brown and her two children, Katherine and Henrietta, are here from McCormick spending two weeks with Mrs. Roy Power.

William Welsh came down from Monroe, N. C., Saturday to bring his young nephew, Dale Welsh, home to be on hand for the opening of school.

Bill Hughes, George Cann, Maxey Johnson and James Coleman will leave sometime this week for Clemson College.

Mr. and Mrs. Crymes and son, Moreland Crymes, Greenwood, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kerr, Greenville street, Sunday.

Mrs. L. W. White returned last week from Hendersonville, where she spent the summer very pleasantly.

Miss Mary Barksdale is at home after a month spent in Greenwood with Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Durst. Edwin Barksdale is also at home after two weeks in Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis McMillan and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cason and little Miss Cassandra Cason of Anderson, spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gambrell.

Mrs. John Blake was over from Greenwood Friday shopping in our first-class stores. Mrs. Blake knows where to come for genuine city styles.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Smith came down from Pelzer Saturday. Mr. Smith returned Sunday while Mrs. Smith and the baby will remain for several days.

Mrs. W. H. White is at home after several weeks spent in a hospital in Atlanta. She brings with her, her fine young ten pound boy, William H. Jr.

Misses Oney, Cara and Mamie Morse went over to Athens yesterday to attend a reception given at by Mrs. Wier for Mr. and Mrs. Van Noy Wier, who have just returned from their wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Hemphill came over from Greenwood and spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Coleman. They went from here to Atlanta, where they will spend several days.

Adolph McDavid, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McDavid, has been in town for several days this week visiting his relatives. He has grown to young manhood since leaving Abbeville and is receiving a warm welcome from friends who remember him as a barefoot boy.

A Lawn Party.

Miss Lila Richey entertained at a pleasant lawn party at her home near town last week. Old fashioned games were enjoyed, a large crowd from town going out for the occasion. Punch was served throughout the evening.

A Dance.

Miss Mary Nickles gave a pleasant dance at her home on Vienna street Friday night in compliment to Mr. Adolph McDavid, who is in town from Columbia. The young people had a delightful time.

School Days

To the girls and boys who stay at home as well as to those who go away to College, we have a word to say—

We have a complete assortment of Waterman, Conklin, and Sterling

FOUNTAIN PENS,

Box Papers of all kinds, Tablets, Pencils, Inks, Erasers, Lunch Boxes, and many other items too numerous to mention.

The

McMurray Drug Co

ANTREVILLE.

Antreville, Sept. 6.—Little Sam Wakefield celebrated his ninth birthday last Monday afternoon, having invited twenty-four little folks to help him enjoy the afternoon. Many games were played, after which cream, cake, and candy was served. They all joined in wishing him many more happy birthdays.

Mr. A. M. Erwin and son, Henry, have returned home from a trip to Baltimore, Philadelphia and other points.

The young people enjoyed a moonlight picnic on Savannah River at Hailey's Ferry last Wednesday evening, this is a lovely place for a picnic, and this occasion is always looked forward to with pleasure.

Miss Florence Clinkscales, of Craytonville, is the attractive guest of her aunt, Mrs. Norris Wakefield, and Miss Ester Bowen. They gave a lawn party in her honor on last Thursday night, a large crowd attended, and passed a pleasant evening. Refreshing punch was served.

Miss Pet Hawthorne is spending several days with her sister, Mrs. S. J. Wakefield.

Miss Elizabeth McCarter entertained a number of young folks on Thursday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Lois Burdette. Cream and punch was enjoyed during the evening.

Mr. George Haddon, who recently returned from overseas, is visiting his home people. He has been away for some time, and every one is glad to see him again.

Miss Grace Brown of Abbeville,

"I Spend a $1 on Rat-Snap and Saved the Price of a Hog."

James McGuire, famous Hog Raiser of New Jersey says, "I advise every farmer troubled with rats to use RATS-NAP. Tried everything to get rid of rats. Spent $1 on RAT-SNAP. Figured the rats it killed, saved the price of a hog." RAT-SNAP comes in cake form. No mixing with other food. Cats or dogs won't touch it. Three sizes, 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by The Rosenberg Mercantile Co., and P. B. Speed.—Adv.

Announce Move

The W. E. Johnson Jewelry Store Has Been Moved From Its Quarters On The Square To Its New

Building on Main Street

In our new store we will be better able to care for our patrons, whom we wish to thank for their business in the past.

W. E. Johnson

Jeweler

Abbeville, South Carolina

visited Miss Myra Williams last week.

Miss Sara Harkness has returned home from Sharon, where she visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilliam.

Mr. Henry Bowen is now at home from Wilmington, N. C., and will be in Antreville for the school term.

Mr. Albert Erwin, who has been on a sight-seeing visit through the North for sometime, is at home again.

Dr. D. S. Knox has returned home from the mountains of North Carolina.

Miss Esther Fleming is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wister Haddon at the County farm.

Miss Zula Suber entertained the following at Suberville on Friday: Misses Annie Bell, Hattie Lou Haddon, Myrtle and Erin Crowther, Wilhelmina Broyles, Mary and Genevieve Anderson, Winton and Althea Keaton, Bertha Patterson, and Mr. George Haddon. An elaborate course dinner was served and everyone enjoyed the day.

Mrs. E. N. McCarter and daughters entertained the following at Oak Ridge Friday at a spend-the-day party: Mrs. S. J. Wakefield, Miss Pet Hawthorne, Mrs. Norris Wakefield, Miss Esther Bowen, Mrs. W. J. Bowen, Mrs. Dean Blachett, Mrs. B. C. Alewine, Misses Sara Harkness, Era Stokes, Lucille Bell, Amy Suber, Beth Anderson, and Lucille Kirkpatrick. All report a good time.

Misses Ethel Anderson and Marie Black spent Friday with Miss Myra Williams.

Mr. Frank Anderson, who is cashier of the Bank at Clemson College, spent the week-end with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Suber and children of Williamston, spent Wednesday night with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Suber.

The First Creek protracted meeting will begin on next Sunday, the 7th. All are invited to attend these services.

Miss Ruth Crowther is teaching in Anderson county helping stamp out illiteracy. It seems that we have no illiterates in Abbeville County as no committee has been appointed and no work done as we know of. Lets try to do our part.

Some of our younger folks seem to think that instead of our motto being, "We do things," it should be, "We Have Parties". Really it would be suitable just now.

Opera House

Today—Tuesday
JOHN BARRYMORE

"The Lost Bridegroom"

A PARMOUNT PICTURE
This is one of the funniest and most thrilling films in which the incomparable John Barrymore has ever appeared. He plays the part of a crook, a mystery character that keeps you guessing right up to the crashing denouement.

"THE RED GLOVE"

AFTERNOON AND NIGHT.
10c. 20c.

Wednesday

MITCHELL LEWIS

Jaquez of the Silver North

A gripping, thrilling, pulsing story of the North Woods, also
Also a STAR COMEDY.
10c. 20c.

Thursday

WALLACE REID

"Less Than Kin"

Also a STRAND COMEDY.
10c. 20c.

COMING

Thursday, Sept. 25th,

CAPT. IRVING O'HAY'S

HICKORY NUTS

(30th Division Amusement Co.)

MATINEE AND NIGHT.

Thursday, Sept. 25th.

The Best of Good Pictures

The Real Clothes Show

A look in our window may give you some idea of the new styles—but the real show is....

inside OUR store

There you will see all the new models; new patterns and fabrics...

You can feel the quality of the cloth and our mirrors will show you how well our clothes fit YOU.

Men's Suits of superior quality and make at moderate prices....

PARKER & REESE